

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

Private and confidential

25th September, 2025

Dear Mr. Lyons,

The King has asked me to express his gratitude to you for your thoughtful messages, with which you so generously enclosed gifts of books.

His Majesty greatly appreciates you taking the trouble to write as you did, and was touched that you so courageously shared with Their Majesties a little about your personal challenges. As Duchess of Cornwall, The Queen became Patron of SafeLives, a charity dedicated to end domestic abuse. Her Majesty remains actively involved with campaigners and survivors of domestic abuse via her patronage, and I have been asked to share with you the following website: www.safelives.org.uk, if you wish to access resources or find a local Marac practitioner. As we are unable to accept unsolicited gifts, and due to its sentimental value, I am returning to you your family bible and photographs for safekeeping. Please rest assured that your kind gesture was most appreciated.

Along with The Queen, The King was heartened to learn that you have found solace in London, and has asked me to pass on their warmest good wishes for your future endeavours.

Yours sincerely,

Head of Royal Correspondence

Mr. Cian Lyons
